HOMES FOR AGED & INFIRM CLERGYMEN AND THEIR DEPENDANTS & PENSIONS FOR CLERGY WIDOWS & ORPHANS

MANORMEAD · HINDHEAD · SURREY
(Nursing Home for 25 chronic sick patients)

The Church of England Pensions Board, on behalf of the Church, now provides accommodation for aged retired clergymen and their elderly dependants. In addition to heavy capital expenditure, £15,000 annually is needed to subsidise the residents in the present homes. To maintain these homes under its care and administration and to build cottages to let at moderate inclusive rentals, the Board asks for your financial help. The Pensions Board also provides eleemosynary pensions for those widows and elderly dependants of clergymen whose incomes are insufficient to meet their needs. Over £13,000 was paid in grants to clergy widows last year. Annual subscriptions, church collections and legacies are urgently needed.

Contributions will be gratefully acknowledged by

W. H. Oatley, Esq., A.C.A.

Treasurer, The Church of England Pensions Board,
53, Tufton Street, London, S.W.1. Telephone: Abbey 1568.

5½ MILLION GOOD TURNS A DAY!

There are 5,562,000 Scouts in the world today. Half-a-million of them are in this country alone and many more are waiting to join. Scouts do all they can to be self-supporting but their efforts such as the famous annual "Bob-a-Job" Week can never raise all the funds required to maintain camping grounds, to provide facilities for the training of leaders and to further Scouting's influence among boys.

The West London Mission

NOT ONE GOOD CAUSE
BUT MANY.....

The homeless, the destitute, the hungry--

Which shall we help?

THE WEST LONDON MISSION HAS ONLY ONE ANSWER :

We must help them all

This Methodist Mission in Kingsway has now been ministering to the poor, the wronged and the defeated for over sixty years. The Katherine Price Hughes Hostel, Gertrude Owen House, the Kingsway Creche, the Youth Club, Kingsway House for unmarried mothers and their toddlers, the Hungerford which shelters "Down and Outs," Henry Carter House for unmarried mothers and their babies, Alfred Hartley House for elderly folk—these are some of its many enterprises.

To make a bequest to the West London Mission is to open up new hope, new happiness, a new and better way of life to many

Rev. Dr. DONALD O. SOPER, M.A., is Superintendent of the Mission and all gifts should be sent to him at the Headquarters

Kingsway Hall, Kingsway, London, W.C.2

Self Help

THE Royal Naval Benevolent Trust has been supported and administered by the men of the Royal Navy since it was established in 1922. It provides relief in distress not only to all serving and ex-serving Naval men, but also to their families, widows, orphans and dependants. R.N.B.T. administers and maintains its own Children's Home in Edinburgh; a Home for Aged Ex-Naval Men in Gillingham; and the Naval School of Motoring, Portsmouth, where Naval men are trained to drive and service motor vehicles.
